inspection of the infrastructure provided by the Institution and to assess the quality thereof in accordance with the norms and qualitative parameters set by the Committee and for that purpose requested the Commissioner, Technical Education to provide necessary manpower/help. In response to the request, the Commissioner formed teams of Experts to carry out necessary inspection for and on behalf of the Committee. The Committee duly authorized those teams of Experts to visit the Institutions and submit their reports to the Committee. The Committee named this programme as "KNOW YOUR COLLEGE" ("KYC" for short). The Teams carried detailed inspection, prepared reports thereof and also furnished copies of the reports to the Management of the concerned Institution. The teams submitted their reports to the Committee online and also hard copy thereof and the Committee in turn evaluated them and based on that it gave an appropriate merit percentage to the Institutions. This exercise has enabled the Committee to properly comply with the provisions of Section-11 of the Act. The Committee considered qualitative parameters as reflected from the report of the experts. After due deliberation the Committee also decided to grant premium to the institutions securing 60% and above and in accordance with the said decision, granted premium in the form of development allowance ranging from 3.5% to 7.5% to such Institutions. Those institutions which failed to achieve the requisite percentage were not given this benefit. In your case the KYC score is 72%.

4. After due scrutiny of the aforesaid data as well as the reports, the Committee arrived at a tentative fee structure for the Institutions and communicated online the figure together with the method by which the said figure was arrived at. In the said letter it was clarified that the fee structure mentioned therein was purely tentative which would be finalized after hearing the Institutions. The institutions were also informed that if they desired personal hearing they should intimate the Committee.
